MOUNT PLEASANT.

Arrival of the Dead-A Fortunate Misfortune.

Special Correspondence.

Mt. Pleasant, Sapete Co., May 3.—The body of David Wilcox, aged 2I, son of widow Candace Wilcox, arrived here today from Scofield, the only victim of the terrible disaster from here. A brother of the deceased is around on crutches, having been injured at the coal mines same time back; had he been well, he, no doubt, would have been lying by the side of his dead brother lying by the side of his dead brother David. All along the line of travel the people are greatly agitated over the mine disaster; papers are in such demand that five times their price has been refused; they are read aloud to listening groups at the postoffices.

Annie Alired Bennett, daughter of Isaac Alired, and wife of Rudolph Bennett, died at noon today, of paralysis.

Andrew Rolph's little daughter is suffering from a broken arm.

THRIFT AND PROGRESS.

Mt. Pleasant has obliterated all trace of its disastrous fire; fine new brick business blocks now adorn the main throughfare. Johnson & Kofford's mer-cantile establishment, right in the cen-ter of the burnt-out district, is doing a flourishing busines; in fact, Mt. Pleas-ant has a brisk business style about it, that one would think it the county seat of Sanpete. Its bank and the improving appearance of its magnificent district school building, give it a metropolitan air that betokens progress and en-

CIRCLEVILLE

Circleville, Piute Co., May 1.-Yesterday the hearing of the case of the State of Utah vs J. P. Osborne, county attorney, was had before H. A. Chaffin, ju of the peace of Circleville, on the charge of assault with a deadly weap-on. Evidence showed that one Green came to the store of Harry Lfl Mills in came to the store of Harry Lfl Mills in an intoxicated condition, and began to abuse Mr. Mills. Mills called on the county attorney to take care of Green, who, by this time, had loaded up with cobble stones and a jack knife. Mr. Os-borne attempted to arrest Green, when the latter raised his knife in a threat-ening manner and Osborne struck him over the head with a H. H. pistol three or four times.
